My career journey began in 2012 in technical flight operations, where I've been involved in shift management for the past 5 years before I left. In 2018, my professional path led me to the sunny island of Malta. There, I worked for an I-Gaming company in the finance & Sales department for nearly 4 years.

This was followed by years as Marketing/Web and Graphic Designer UI & UX Designer in Zurich, Switzerland. I'm looking for a new opportunity to develop my career and my personal experiences.
